ORDER

Pending before the Court is Plaintiff Daryn Edward Mardis' ("Mardis") "Unopposed Application for Award for Attorney's Fees and Costs Under the Equal Access to Justice Act 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d) and Brief." (Dkt. No. 19). That statute provides, in relevant part, that:

A Court shall award to a prevailing party [in certain suits against the United States] . . . fees and other expenses . . . unless the Court finds that the position of the United States was substantially justified.

28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A). Attorneys who successfully represent persons seeking benefits under the Social Security Act fall within the attorney's fee provisions of the statute. Herron v. Bowen, 788 F.2d 1127 (5th Cir. 1986).

Rodney F. Durham, counsel for Mardis, has submitted an itemized list of services showing that 5.25 hours were expended on this case in 2012 and 24.25 hours were expended on this case in 2013. (Dkt. No., Ex. B). The EAJA provides that attorney's fees shall be limited to $125 an hour "unless the court determines that an increase in the cost of living . . . justifies a higher fee." 28 U.S.C. § 22412(d)(2)(A). Durham claims the hourly rate should be set at $178.75 for the work he performed in 2012 and 2013. Durham bases the hourly rate on the Department of Labor's Consumer Price Index ("CPI"), as it is calculated for the region. He therefore seeks attorney's fees in the amount of $5,273.11. The Commissioner does not oppose the time expended by Durham or the hourly rate for which he seeks compensation.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED that Mardis' Unopposed Motion for Attorney's Fees is GRANTED. It is further ORDERED that attorney's fees in the amount of $5,273.11 are approved to be released to Rodney F. Durham, counsel for Mardis, as the reasonable and necessary fee for counsel's services in this matter at the federal court level.

SIGNED this 11th day of September, 2013, at Galveston, Texas.
